

IMPORTANT NEWS REGARDING EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT TRAINING COURSES

Below is the schedule of NJOEM Training Courses from January 1, 2010 through August 31, 2010.

Our primary location for training will be the NJ State Police Troop C Headquarters in Hamilton. We will also be holding classes at the ROIC in West Trenton. Lodging will not be provided and lunch will be “on your own.”

At Troop C we will use classrooms located on both ends of the building - the “Troop C” side and the “Communications” side. Parking for classrooms is located on the Communications side of the building; an overflow lot is available near the NJ Office of Homeland Security. Please arrive early or on time for classes; the main lot can fill up quickly. Classes start at 8:30 a.m. When entering the Communications side of the building, use the phone to identify yourself and you will be “buzzed” in. When entering the Troop C side, let the Trooper at the desk know you are attending an emergency management class.

The NJOEM Field Training Unit remains committed to holding classes in the regions. Please work with your NJOEM Regional representatives to schedule classes; alternative scheduling (i.e., evenings and weekends) will be considered.
